LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO NOV. 28.

EASTERN STATES.

A Voice from the Tombs.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, Nov. 27.—Geo. S. Parker, one of the prominent Democrats of this State, publishes a card in the Democrat this afternoon in which he says the Democratic party as an organization is dead. If Democrats expect to resurrect its principles and succeed in 1872, they must abandon the old organization and become an integral portion of a new party. The article creates much excitement in political circles.

Miscellaneous New York Dispatches.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Connolly was not bailed late this afternoon. The sureties found early in the day were Washington Connolly, Michael Moony, John Morrissey and Thomas J. Cahill. Bernard Kelly was unable to qualify in the required amount. It is said that Connolly will be permitted to occupy rooms at the New York Hotel for a reasonable time, but if bail be not then obtained he will be committed to the Ludlow street jail.

Rumor says that Tweed has resigned the office of Commissioner of Public Works, and Francis M. Bibbey, a merchant, is appointed his successor by Mayor Hall.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The difficulty which Connolly experiences in finding bail is due to the Sheriff rejecting many of the persons who have been offered. His friends say the Sheriff is unnecessarily severe in refusing men who were fully able to respond as sureties.

Havemeyer and Tilden say the Committee of Seventy are not at all pleased with Connolly's arrest. It is also stated that the arrest was made with the hope that Connolly would divulge all he knew.

At Hunter's Point, Long Island, yesterday, forty Catholic children were expelled from the Public School by the direction of the Commissioner, because they objected to read the Bible.

Small-Pox in New York and Philadelphia.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Ten new cases and four deaths from small-pox were reported to-day. There were 152 deaths from this disease in Philadelphia, and 92 new cases reported there yesterday.

Alexis Sees an Opera.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The Grand Duke Alexis and suite attended the opera at the Academy of Music to-night and was enthusiastically received by the audience, while the band played the Russian national hymn.

Alexis to Visit Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27.—The programme for Alexis is a review next Monday, a visit to League Island and then the navy yard, winding up with a grand ball in the evening. He leaves Tuesday. The officers of the Russian fleet are also invited to be their guests.

South Carolina Finances.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 27.—A committee of influential citizens, including J. D. Harp and ex-Gov. Orr, publish the result of their examination of the Treasurer's debt statement, which they find correct. The committee report the debt of South Carolina to be $11,995,308, exclusive of the six millions owing in New York. The American Bank Note Company certify that they have in their possession six millions sterling funding bonds, and Governor Scott has instructed them to print no more bonds or stocks of any kind for this State.

Another Manifestation from the Moribund Democracy.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 27.—The Sunday Times, of this city, had eleven columns of letters from prominent men from all parts of Missouri endorsing the passive policy. These endorsements are from Senators, Representatives, Generals, Judges and citizens.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Miscellaneous News.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Ex-Senator Wade has declined the offer made him by Secretary Fish as President or Umpire of the Commission between England and Liberia. Wade says his position as chief law officer of the Northern Pacific Railroad will not permit him to be long enough away. The position in the company which he now fills is one which was offered to Minister Schenck prior to the latter's having been appointed to the English Mission.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Gen. Howard will probably succeed Gen. Ord in command of the Department of California.

The Arizona Indians.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Delegate McCormick, of Arizona, to-day presented a petition to the President, signed by all classes of citizens, asking that the control of Indian affairs be given to the military authorities and not to Peace Commissioners. The President took the petition and said he hoped the recent order by Gen. Schofield would satisfy the people of Arizona. Government proposed to deal summarily and rigorously with the Apaches if, after duly notifying them to go and remain on a new eastern reservation, where they would be fed and protected, they continue on the war-path.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

German Affairs.

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—The session of the Diet of the Kingdom of Prussia was opened by the King in person. The speech from the Throne points to the financial prosperity of the country. He proposes a general increase of official salaries and recommends encouragement by the Diet of railway enterprises. The speech was well received and the Emperor King was loudly cheered by the members of the Diet on entering and leaving the chamber.

Collision at Sea.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—A collision occurred last night off the Irish coast between the ships Marmion and Occola. The latter sunk very soon after being struck. Several of the crew escaped by jumping on board the Marmion, but nine men are missing. It is hoped they saved themselves in one of the boats.

Condition of the Prince of Wales.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Physicians in attendance upon the Prince of Wales, issued a bulletin this to-day. There is, however, no change in the symptoms of the disease under which he is suffering.

From Vienna.

VIENNA, Nov. 27.—John Jay, U. S. Minister to Austria and Count Andrassy, Minister of Foreign Affairs, have signed an international convention between the United States and Austria, guaranteeing inviolability of trade marks in the two countries.

From Rome.

ROME, Nov. 27.—For the first time since the occupation of Rome the Italian Parliament met in this city to day, opening with a speech delivered in person by his Majesty King Victor Emanuel. In commencing he alluded to the event connected with the occupation of the city and said Italy was restored to herself and had her recognized place in the world. He was convinced that Rome would remain the seat of the Pontificate. The relations between Italy and all other nations, his Majesty said, are friendly, and he believed peace would continue. He warned the Parliament that they would be held to a strict account in the future if they neglected to perfect a thorough organization of the military and naval forces of the Kingdom.

Gen. Sickles Married.

MADRID, Nov. 26.—Gen. Sickles was married to Miss Creach to-day and started for New York immediately. His visit is a mystery at present.

MEXICO.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Intelligence from Mexico states that the Government troops are nearing Saltillo to raise the siege.

Cortina had appropriated the pay of the Government troops to himself, causing a revolt and disbanding of the troops. A general revolt is expected against the Government on the first of December.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—Raining steadily to-day; wind south and warm. Rain fall to 8 A. M., for twenty-four hours, 1 3 100, making a total of 9 3 100 inches for the season.

Arrived—Ship Monmouthshire, Newcastle, England, coal.

An order will be issued from the Adjutant General's office, by direction of Gov. Haight, for the Governor's staff to be present at the inauguration of Gov. Booth, in full dress. Gen. Cobb and staff, Gen. Hewston and staff, and other representatives of the National Guard of California will attend.

The Board of Supervisors, last night, finally adopted a resolution increasing the strength of the Fire Department by the addition of two new engines and companies.

E. M. Richardson, of Wheeler's expedition, has arrived here from Arizona, and confirms the report that Fred W. Loring was one of the Apache victims of Wickenburg. This report was denied in the East.

In the Board of Supervisors last night an order passed giving the Southern and Central Pacific Railroad Company the right to lay tracks and run cars on certain streets: From Townsend street between Fourth and Fifth streets, thence crossing Fourth, Kingsberry and Chestnut streets to block number 43, in Mission Bay, thence crossing Hooper, Irwin, Kentucky, Hubbell, South Merrimac, Alameda, Eldorado, Center, Santa Clara, Sonoma, Butte, Napa, Shasta, Sierra, Humboldt, Nevada, Sonora and Yolo streets; also, from a point on King street, between Third and Fourth streets, to connect with tracks to Wharf Pier.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—This evening the new city hall livery stable, on Mission street, near Seventh, being overloaded with water on the roof from the heavy rains, fell with a crash, burying a man known as Italian Joe under the ruins, killing him instantly. The body was taken to the morgue.

John Carr, arrested last night for the murder of Barry, on the 9th inst., is found to be a guard at San Quentin, and numerous witnesses are ready to swear that he was on duty at the prison when Barry was drowned or murdered.

The defense in the suit of Miss Turner against Ortiz for $200,000 damages for seduction and breach of promise, to-day introduced several witnesses to impeach the character for veracity of the Cherrys, mainly those who had known them in connection with the Bonnazetta and Golden Era mines in Nevada. Defendant Ortiz testified at length, denying in the most positive terms that he ever had any criminal connection with Miss Turner, or that he was ever under any promise to marry her, either expressed or implied; never presented her with a diamond ring or watch; never visited her room at night, and in short contradicted her whole story in detail, so far as related to alleged facts. On which Ortiz, in reply to a question of the Court on being recalled, stated, that the erasures in certain letters from him to defendant were made after the latter were sent, the defence then rested their case.

The Court decided in the Hawes case, that the executors could not introduce testimony now to prove the sanity of the testator, they already having rested after proving the execution of the will. This is looked upon as a triumph of the opposition.

VALLEJO, Nov. 28.—Three frame buildings were burned this morning on Capitol street. The fire occurred in the thickly built portion of the town, but by prompt and energetic action the firemen succeeded in preventing its further spread.

It is still raining here.

Condition of Insurance Companies.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—The officers of the Pacific Insurance Company say that contrary to expectations, very few of their stockholders have responded. They complain that this is due in a great measure to the influence of outsiders, and the enmities and jealousy by competition, great efforts having been made to scare weak stockholders and prevent their paying their assessments. It is due to the managers to say that they are doing all in their power to carry the institution through, and many of their stockholders are determined to pay their share of the losses as soon as the Chicago liabilities are adjusted, and the Company has set aside a sufficient fund to reinsure all policy holders in any event. Officers of the Firemens' Fund Company declare that it is all right, and ready to meet all demands, dollar for dollar, and continue business with capital unimpaired. We do not hear much about the Occidental.

NEVADA.

TOANO, Nov. 28.—After three days terrific gale last week, the snow has fallen fifteen inches on a level, being the deepest known for many years. The railroad company is using snow plows. Trains both ways are behind time.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The St. Louis Democrat has commenced figuring on the result of the Presidential election next year. It thinks that if Grant be renominated he will secure 250 electoral votes out of 319.

The "national organ" of the Democratic party at Washington City, the Patriot, has decided to oppose any formal nomination by the Democracy for President and Vice President, provided the anti-Grant Republicans will put a ticket in the field, and indicates a willingness to support even Charles Sumner.

The San Francisco Examiner announces (on the authority of a Washington letter writer) that the original copy of Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation, "by which the people of the South were robbed of four hundred million dollars worth of property, was consumed in the Chicago fire." "Robbed of their property" is good Democratic doctrine.

The Griffin (Ga.) Star, Democratic organ, says: "Old man Smith of Butts, who lives on the line of Sherman's 'grand march to the sea,' was called on to subscribe for the relief the Chicago people. He subscribed a hundred bundles of fodder to the cow that kicked over the kerosene lamp that burned this modern Sodom." Now that fellow would mightily please the Oregon Herald.

NEWS CONDENSATIONS.

The water in California rivers has never been so low since the settlement of the country as it is.

Members of Congress are collecting at Washington for the long session, which begins next Monday. Some of the Committees are already in session.

A project for uniting the Black and Caspian Seas by a canal is engaging the attention of the Russian Government. The cost is estimated at 81,000,000 roubles.

The new French Minister to Washington, who is expected to arrive in a short time, is Jules Ferry, a man who has achieved considerable celebrity as an advocate and a journalist.

There are rumors at New York that the voucher thieves will turn State's evidence and reveal the names of those instigating the thefts. There is great consternation thereat among the Tammany gang.

A late Washington dispatch is suggestive of the rapidity with which portions of the country are filling up with homes and farms. During last month one hundred and thirty-two thousand acres were acquired from the Government in two districts of Kansas for the purpose of conversion into settlements.

Mexico, the land of anarchy and ruin, is never itself unless involved in revolutionary schemes and acts of pillage. The latest intelligence from that unhappy country is to the effect that the revolution inaugurated against the Government of Juarez continues with unabated vigor, and that bands of men are sacking villages and haciendas, and that robberies are being committed in sight of the gates of the City of Mexico.

A contract between Switzerland and a copartnership of German bankers for the construction of a tunnel under Mount St. Gotthard has been completed. The work contracted for is twice the length of the Mont Cenis tunnel, and difficulty is anticipated at Andermott in passing under the beds of rivers. The company is to raise $20,400,000, and the Governments interested will grant a subsidy of $17,000,000. The peaks which are to be tunneled vary in height from 8,750 to 10,000 feet.

OREGON.

The Salem Mercury is to be enlarged. And we hope improved.

Proposals for carrying the military mails from Jacksonville to Fort Klamath are asked for at the former place.

The Jacksonville Sentinel heads an article on the castigation of Geo. Trimble in a hotel by two young women of that place with "A Proper Chastisement."

Probably there is now an end of the Jacksonville scandal. The grand jury ignored the charge of seduction brought by Miss Hannah Ralls against James D. Fay, and V. S. Ralls, father of the young woman, has been acquitted of the charge of an assault on Fay with an attempt to kill.

From the Jacksonville Times: Samuel Hawkins, whose rich strike was reported a few weeks ago, has sold his claim on Rogue River, six miles below the mouth of Applegate, to Evan Taylor and Edward Neely, who are at present making preparation to work their claim. His last half day's work on the claim amounted to about $25, among which was a nugget weighing $13. After selling his claim for $2,000 he went two miles further down and struck diggings as rich as those he had just sold. He obtained $3 from a single pan of dirt in his new diggings, and expresses the belief that the vein or channel is eight or ten miles in length, and that it will require between sixty and eighty feet digging to reach it.

THE TERRITORIES.

The Idaho Herald wants an extra session of the Legislature of that Territory. "D—n Yam-hill!"

Brigham Young has not yet returned to Salt Lake City, and his bail is forfeited. The papers say that the bail has been raised among the people by contribution, and is ready to be paid over.

Alas! Woman suffrage is likely to receive a set back. One branch of the Wyoming Territory Legislature has passed a bill to rescind the woman suffrage law, and the Cheyenne Leader predicts that the other branch will do likewise.

The Grand Jury of Pima county, Arizona Territory, recently convened according to law, deliberated nine days and came into court with 111 indictments, of which 3 were for misdemeanor and 108 for murder. Arizona must be a pleasant place in which to spend a summer vacation.

Under Gen. Schofield's policy for Arizona, Colyer's rosewater treatment of the Apaches is to be dropped. Active operations are to be kept up against the hostile Indians of that tribe, "and pressed with all practicable vigor until they submit to the authority of the Government, cease from hostilities, and remain upon their reservations." This will be good news to all friends of Arizona.

The Swamp Land Laws.

[From the Jacksonville Sentinel.]

The great masses of the Democratic party of Oregon are bound to be opposed to this swamp land law of Oregon. It was conceived by the land grabbing ring, and many of them obtained seats in the last Legislature for the purpose of passing a swamp land grabbing law, so they could enrich themselves by speculation, in place of settling on the land and earning a living by industry and perseverance. Many good men voted for the law without examining it critically, and without knowing it was calculated in many instances to deprive the poor man of his home and all his improvements; and without studying its legal effects, they naturally concluded it would make more homes and more settlers. Many of them were wholly ignorant that it was framed in the interest of speculators. Some of these speculators still intend to capture the next Legislature and get the dollar per acre refunded or reduced to twenty-five cents per acre, and afterwards the twenty-five cents refunded like the same class did in California. The people must watch these crafty speculators, and refuse to vote for any man to the Legislature unless he will pledge his sacred honor not to reduce the price, and to protect the interest of the actual occupant and cultivator of the soil. Do this, and the objects of the last grabs of the speculators in the last Legislature will be sure to be defeated. The swamp land law, like Buchanan's veto of the homestead act, may retard the settlement and development of our State, but justice, right, and the interest of the actual settler will at last triumph over rapacity, wrong, and the oppression of the poor settler.

Mr. Buchanan vetoed the homestead act while his followers were plotting treason and the destruction of the best and most lenient government on earth. This retarded the settlement and development of the far west for a time, but the people rose in their might and drove the Democratic party from power and place. The homestead act was re-enacted, and on the 20th day of May, 1862, it was approved by President Lincoln.

On this question, General Jackson was directly opposed to President Buchanan and the present Democracy. He thought and spoke as far back as 1832, that it was time the Government ought not to look to the public lands as a source of revenue, and that they should be set apart for homesteads. So the State lands, including all the swamp lands or overflowed lands now fit for cultivation, should be set apart for the cultivator of the soil. Where the overflow is deep, such as a few places on the Columbia river, Klamath Lake, Goose Lake and Rhett Lake, the United States should authorize their drainage, and the State should appropriate the proceeds derived from the sale of good swamp lands, or call in the aid of capitalists to make them fit for good homes of the actual settler. This was the intention of Congress when it granted the swamp lands to the States. The object was to allow all the land capable of being improved to be done without expense to the State. The people of each State are better acquainted with the condition and localities than Congressmen, and therefore better calculated to promote and encourage each locality than the General Government. Hence, we say, a donation of Klamath Lakes, Goose Lake, and all lakes of the same depth of water, with plenty of good swamp lands to improve them, would be a magnificent donation if properly applied by the State authorities; but better not have a foot of land given to the State, than to allow speculators to hold it for ten years, without a cent's worth of work or draining a foot of land, and still be allowed to drive the pioneer from his farm, and deprive him of his improvements, and turn his wife and children out of doors to seek another piece of vacant and unappropriated lands of the United States. Let every voter of the country rise in his might, regardless of party ties, and do justice to the poor settler and advance the interests of the country.

A Chicago lover went to visit his girl one evening recently, but for some reason, possibly that the fire had materially changed his condition in life, she received and treated him cold. He remained standing in the parlor a few moments, but finally made a movement toward the door, remarking that "he guessed he'd go." "Oh!" said she, starting from a beautiful condition of semiunconsciousness, "won't you take a chair?" "Well, I don't care if I do," was his reply, and he took the chair, thanking her kindly, and carried it home. He says it is a good chair, made out of walnut, with stuffing, and green cover—just what he wanted. But he is down on that girl, and declares he wouldn't marry her—not if her father owned a brewery.

Civil Service Reform.

[From the New York Sun.]

That a favorable opportunity for a genuine attempt at inaugurating this important reform now exists cannot be doubted by any sagacious observer of men and affairs.

Considerable progress has already been made in the Washington Departments during the present administration. The Civil Service Commission, organized under authority of law, with George William Curtis at its head, has closed its labors. As the public is aware, its report was lately considered at a Cabinet meeting, Mr. Curtis being present and participating in the discussion.

We learn from Washington, through a well-informed source, that the report, and the plan it embodied met the most respectful consideration. Objections were made to some of the details, but the whole Cabinet joined heartily in the avowed purpose of the commission, which is to remove as speedily as possible the civil service from the sphere of political patronage.

The President is especially impressed with the necessity of practical reform in this direction, and it is understood will make important suggestions to that end a prominent feature of his next annual message. He has expressed in various ways, during the last few weeks, the great interest he takes in the subject and his belief in the present favorable conjuncture of circumstances to push the work to definite issue.

No better proof of President Grant's sincere desire [illegible] public welfare, as well as of that [illegible] his military career proved [illegible] could be presented than the [illegible] him of such a "new departure," [illegible] that, too, on the eve of a Presidential contest, in which he is himself to be presented for renomination.

Still Another Remarkable Cure.

A PATIENT GAINS 15½ POUNDS AND RECOVERS HIS HEALTH IN FOUR WEEKS' TIME UNDER THE TREATMENT OF DR. ABORN.

This is to certify that I have been afflicted for three years, and that I kept declining slowly until the latter part of last May, when I was taken down entirely, since which time, as before, I could get no relief. My disease baffled the skill of every attempt, and only left me weaker, until death would have been a relief at many times. Four weeks ago to-night I placed myself under the care of Dr. Aborn, whose treatment gave me immediate relief, and I continued to gain so rapidly until now, after using his medicine only four weeks, I have gained fifteen and one-half pounds, and feel like a new man.

Yours truly, [illegible]

I wish to say to the public that I have been troubled with a disease in my chest, lungs and [illegible] for the last five years, and have been treated by doctors in San Francisco and Oregon, but found no such relief as I have found since I commenced taking Dr. Aborn's medicines, one which has only been about four weeks, and I have gained nine pounds—in fact, I feel almost like a new man. I commenced improving from the very first day, and have continued to improve ever since. Further I would say, that the Doctor's treatment is entirely different from any that I had ever taken before. I would say to all that are afflicted to give the Doctor a call, as they will find his charges reasonable and his medicines magical in their effects.

Passive or Active?

Time once was that when the brains were out the man would die. So with political parties which had lived their day and accomplished their mission. The old Federal party quietly gave up the ghost when its day was ended; the Whig party passed away when there ceased to be any reason why it should exist longer. But the present effete Democratic party, which for fifteen years has done scarcely a sensible thing, now absurdly persists in trying to prolong its existence, when there is no reason whatever why it should do so, and when its only care should be to get under ground as decently and with as little further offense to the world, as possible.

Instead of quietly subsiding, as it should, the party is now engaged in a general wrangle over its future,—though it has no future and would be in better condition if it could blot out its past. On one side are the advocates of a passive, and on the other the advocates of an active, policy. But either course has its hazards. Scylla is on the one hand, Charybdis on the other. If the passive policy be adopted the members of the party will be absolved from their allegiance and the organization will be broken up. If the active policy be chosen no reinforcements can be expected from disaffected Republicans, and Democrats will be outvoted and defeated, as they have been again and again.

The weight of counsel seems to be against the passive policy. Most of the journals of the party have spoken out on the subject, and a majority are against the proposition to abandon the field to a disaffected Republican candidate and to try to carry over the Democratic vote to him. Let us first quote from an Oregon paper. The Roseburg Plaindealer says:

> The Republican leaders in opposition to Grant, are Sumner and Wilson of Massachusetts, Fenton and Horace Greeley of New York, Schurz of Missouri, Cox of Ohio, Trumbull and Logan of Illinois, Cassius M. Clay and Gov. Geary of Pennsylvania, supported by the Cincinnati Commercial and Chicago Tribune, each and every one of whom has by every means in his power tended to bring about the present state of affairs, which they now affect to deplore. Does any man in his senses believe that the Democratic party will trust these men, or vote for their candidate?

The St. Louis Republican is a leading advocate of passivism. The Times of that city cannot, however, see any encouragement in the proposed movement, and cites the Wisconsin election as an indication of its consequences:

> But why does the passive sheet (the Republican)—not at all passive when it comes to lying—keep silent in regard to Wisconsin? There was the passive doctrine, with a vengeance. The Democrats got out of the way to give the nomination to ex-Senator Doolittle, an old and eminent Republican, who may be classed in the same category with Trumbull and Schurz. The platform was fixed up to suit him, all objectionable ultra Democratic elements withdrawn from sight; and yet he is beaten worse than the straight Democratic candidate was two years ago. What was the reason? There were enough Democrats who would not be sold out to defeat him by declining to vote for him, while the Radical vote was held solidly for the Radical candidate. The theory of passivism could not have been better tested than in Wisconsin, nor more signally condemned. What Doolittle could not do in Wisconsin, Schurz cannot do in the nation.

The dilemma here indicated suggests plainly to every observer that it is embarrassing for a party to try to live when every reason why it should continue to exist has passed away.

Two Wrongs.

A Democratic paper at Salem, the Mercury, published under the eye of the Governor, has this statement:

> Jesse Applegate's visit to the East has something to do, probably, with his desire to be partially reimbursed by an ex-State officer at Salt Lake for ten thousand dollars which he has to pungle for him to the State.

This is equivalent to an assertion that an ex-State officer (S. E. May is doubtless meant, as he is the only ex-State officer at Salt Lake who is under bonds to the State) is ascertained to be a defaulter. We have already spoken of this matter several times and pointed out the singular and unpardonable remissness of the present State officials, who, though they have for a year past been causing hints to be circulated that May is a defaulter, have yet taken no steps to recover the amount from his sureties. The sureties are good and responsible men, who, when required to do so, will pay every dollar. The amount is not large, but the State should not be allowed to lose it through the delay of the present officials, who have long been postponing the performance of their duty in order that they may have a little something to harp on just before the next election. We say these things, assuming on Democratic testimony that there has been an embezzlement of a sum amounting to something like six thousand dollars which came into the ex-Secretary's hands from the Treasury at Washington as part of the proceeds of the sales of public lands in Oregon, and which that official failed to account for. And now the present officials, in the hope of gaining some advantage by springing it just before the next election, are neglecting their duty and the interests of the State. This is not much less reprehensible than the original act of embezzlement.

The Last Hope.

The Washington Chronicle of the 14th November prints the following, with the state[illegible] contributors. It really [illegible] most trusted [illegible]cratic party were about to hang its last hope on the slender thread of a coalition with dissatisfied Republicans:

> From prominent men of the Democratic party, who are here, and others who have been here recently, and in correspondence from New York, we learn that a general interchange of public opinion is going on relative to future action looking to the Presidential election. Outspoken, decided leaders of the Democracy have freely expressed their views, from which it appears that a large majority of these gentlemen are in favor of a coalition with a division of Republicans, if it can be brought about, to nominate the candidates for President and Vice President, in opposition to the regular nomination of the Republican party. Very few opinions a[illegible]ting to this proposition have been expressed. The utter hopelessness of success of all opposition to the Republican nomination, with candidates of the regular Democratic nomination, is almost unanimously admitted. The plan generally favored is to allow the conservative element of the Republicans to make its choice, and for the Democratic Convention to meet and adopt resolutions and adjourn without a regular [illegible] for President and Vice President. If the sentiment that now prevails almost unanimously among Democratic leaders shall govern, this course shall be adopted. Final action is postponed on this subject until Congress shall meet, when Democratic Senators and Representatives are to hold a caucus to consider the opinions of the lights of the party, and will probably recommend the course to be pursued without an exception. Thus far, they admit that the lookout now clearly indicates the nomination, by the regular Republican party, and re-election of General Grant.

Mr. Greeley talks frankly about the "stupendous folly" he committed in "permitting himself to think of the Presidency." There is a greatness in such confessions that is really admirable.

The Constitution and Woman Suffrage.

The Pacific, a religious paper of San Francisco, thus treats the argument that the recent amendments to the National Constitution, by which colored men were pronounced citizens and constituted voters, really constitute the colored woman, and also all other women, voters, likewise:

> Those amendments contain just what the Congress that proposed them, and the legislatures that ratified them, believed them to contain—nothing more nor less. It cannot be claimed that they were intended to enfranchise women. To say that there was no intention to exclude them is an impertinence. There was no intention on the subject. The enfranchisement of women was never thought of at the time. It was all an afterthought. Suppose the language of the amendments will admit the construction sought to be put upon it, we have no right to put it there, because the authors did not think of such a construction. If a vessel is large enough to hold any particular thing, it does not follow that it is in there; nor does the vessel hold it when we thrust it in—it is so much cotton-batting on top. Should any of us undertake to interpret the Bible or any other important book, by first reading in it what we fancy it might possibly be understood to mean, though no evidence exists that our fancied reading was in the intention of God or the thought of man, at the time when the particular passage was written, we should be condemned as illogical, irrational and mischievous interpreters. Accordingly, the attempt referred to seems to us, logically, a fetch, a trick, and a juggle, unworthy of sentient people.

Russia Against Prussia.

An explanation of Russian military preparation is offered by an article in the New York Bulletin, which declares from facts that have come to its knowledge that Russia is menaced by the pending demand of Prussia that she shall give up the ancient German Provinces of Esthland, Lieveland and Courland, on the Baltic Sea, which for several centuries have belonged to Russia, and in one of which is St. Petersburg. The origin of the demand is the commercial and political necessity that these Baltic Provinces shall belong to the German Empire. The Bulletin says of the territory subject to this claim:

> Of course, Russia would only yield to this demand after a military humiliation as overwhelming as that of France. The loss of these Provinces, to say nothing of the blow to her pride, would at once reduce her from the position of a first-class power. The disputed Provinces constitute the granary of Europe. They are the keys of the Baltic and of Northern power, just as much as Constantinople is the key of the Black Sea and the empire of the East. Still more, St. Petersburg, the capital of Russia, is located in these Provinces. To ask Russia to surrender them would be almost equivalent to a demand by Canada for the cession of the entire region from the Chesapeake to Lake Superior, including the city of Washington, and the States of Pennsylvania, New York, New England, Ohio and Michigan.

Wonderful Trotting.

Ex-Governor Stanford of California has a remarkably fast trotting horse named "Wonder," one of whose recent performances is described in the following from Sacramento, dated November 23d:

> This morning, to gratify several friends from San Francisco and elsewhere, Governor Stanford permitted his famous trotter to go three heats around the Union Park Course. The horse was in good condition, and made remarkable time, there being but three quarters of a second difference between the first and third heats, the usual time intervening between the heats as allowed in mile heat trotting matches. The first mile was done in 2:18½; second, 2:19; and third, 2:19¼. Not a skip or break occurred in either heat, nor was the whip used throughout. The first quarter of the second mile was made in thirty-five seconds, and the half-mile post was passed in the same heat in 1:06¼. Although the performance cannot be credited officially there can be no doubt it was done as above recorded. Many watches were held over the horse, and some gentlemen claim that the first mile was trotted in 2:18. D. O. Mills and others of San Francisco were present, and if need be can vouch for the performance this morning. A. F. Smith, trainer of the horse, said after the third heat that he could go another considerably under 2:20.

The Scientific American is of opinion that if the wood, of which most of the buildings in Chicago destroyed by fire were constructed, had been saturated with soluble glass, or soaked first in phosphate of soda and afterwards in chloride of barium, it could not have been set on fire. The latter mixture may be too expensive for use on a large scale; but silicate of soda, or soluble glass, can be obtained in sufficiently large quantities, and at such reasonable rates, as to admit of the preparation of the shingles, clapboards, and all exposed portions of frame buildings. Any such precaution as this has the double advantage of protecting against fire, and securing against decay; and, in the long run, would be found to be the greatest economy. If people will insist upon constructing frame buildings in large towns, they ought to be compelled to render them essentially fireproof by the above chemical mixture. So many experiments have been tried with soluble glass that the security it affords against fire and decay may be considered as fully determined. Wood thus prepared will char and smoulder, but will not burst into flame; and hence there could be no scattering of cinders or blowing about of firebrands.

GOV. PALMER AND GEN. SHERIDAN.—The late action of the Grand Jury in Chicago has entirely relieved Gen. Sheridan from all the blame imputed to him by Gov. Palmer, but the following from an Illinois correspondent of the Detroit Tribune is interesting in connection with the subject matter:

> The conduct of Gov. Palmer toward Gen. Sheridan is such a mixture of folly, vindictiveness and stupidity that it is hard to find a motive for it. He has no more legal right to move in the matter at this time than has the Governor-General of Canada. His common sense applauded Sheridan's conduct in the beginning, as the telegram shows; but, as usual, selfishness comes uppermost and his later conduct turns on a political hinge. He aspires to be Trumbull's successor in the Senate; he wants Democratic indorsement; he followed the malicious suggestion of that marplot, W. F. Storey, who hates Sheridan with an intensity never exercised in a good cause; and this is the result.

[illegible] Democratic paper, speculating upon possible political combinations next year, says the railway power of the country will claim to be heard as a potential element in the Presidential election. A number of Democratic papers, such as the Cincinnati Enquirer and the Pittsburg Post, are already in favor of recognizing and bowing to this "potential element" by nominating Tom Scott, the railroad king, for President. Anything for success.

The Washington Patriot, a paper which assumes to be the "national organ" of the Democratic party, has given in its adhesion to the "Passive Policy," and is ready to support for President almost any Republican who is dissatisfied with his party.

The original emancipation proclamation of President Lincoln having been destroyed by the fire at Chicago, the discovery by the Kentucky Democracy that this circumstance does not restore to them their negroes is having a depressing effect.

The cost of collecting the Internal Revenue of the United States has been reduced from $2,321,501 71 for the year ending June 30, 1870, to $2,132,462 61 for the year ending June 30, 1871, showing a saving of nearly $200,000.

"Indian Joe," a Piute medicine man, well known among the whites, was stoned to death by his tribe, having failed to restore to health two sick Indians. The practice of medicine among Indians evidently has its unpleasant features.

History.

The Father of History, Herodotus, thus describes the object of his own writings: "that the actions of men may not be effaced by time, nor the great and wondrous deeds displayed both by Greeks and other nations be deprived of renown." Time, according to this testimony, effaces the actions of men, and deprives great and wondrous deeds of renown. It is true that in proportion to the distance of an event in point of time, is the danger of its being forgotten. Time, like a rising tide, flows in upon and covers the deeds of men, and the depths of the oblivion in which they are sunk is according to the length of the period that has passed over them; or, speaking in more perfect harmony with the words of Herodotus, time operates on the actions of men as the elements on the works of the builder. The external ornaments of a palace or temple, exposed to wind and weather, are the first to disappear; then the form, and at last the very material itself; and in like manner are the actions of men effaced by time.

History is intended to counteract this effacing and concealing influence of time. Written narrative is the diving-bell in which, through the deep waters of the past, we reach what otherwise would be inaccessible—it is material, and labor and skill, by which we restore what time has injured, and by which we preserve from extinction, if not from defacement, what otherwise would have perished.

We speak of real history. Much that professes to be narration of facts, is mere myth, or so distorted and dressed up that the age in which they were said to have occurred would not know them if opportunity were given for recognition. All history should be read with a rigidly critical eye. As civilization has advanced, the facilities of recording and transmitting facts have improved and increased; and thus the accuracy and extent of historical records have kept pace with the number and character of the events which have claimed remembrance. In no age of the world has so much been stirring as the present; and now, instead of oral tradition, (necessarily uncertain)—instead of bark and leaf, (perishable and fragile)—instead of the tablet, whether of wood, stone, or metal, (invariably unwieldy)—instead of the roll of skin (necessarily cumbrous)—instead of the papyrus, so brittle—the parchment, so costly—instead of inscriptions by the slow-paced pen, instead of any of these, we have cheap writing material made from the scraps of textile fabrics, from the very refuse of our clothing, and on this the art which preserves all other arts makes impressions far more enduring than the sun leaves on the collodion-plate; and equally true, if the historian be true. This means keeps pace with the demand, and as the record of facts (history) becomes important, the facilities for fixing and transmitting them are multiplied.

Re-erection of Government Buildings in Chicago.

[Washington Correspondence N. Y. Herald.]

Supervising Architect Mullett, of the Treasury Department, returned this evening from Chicago, where he has been, by the direction of Secretary Boutwell, to look into the needs of the Government in the way of new public buildings to replace those destroyed and to meet the wants that are growing ones in spite of the fire. He will be ready to submit his report to-morrow for the information of the Secretary and the President, who personally takes a great interest in all that relates to the scorched metropolis. The report will take the strongest ground in favor of retaining the Federal offices in the South Division, very near to, if not upon, the spot where they lately stood. Mr. Mullett, from personal observation, believes the site to be as convenient as any the Government can select in any other part of the city, and that its removal would in consequence be a gratuitous injury to the property interests in the burned out section. In this there is a concurrence of opinion between President Grant, Mr. Boutwell, the Senators and Representatives from Illinois and Speaker Blaine, who, as the official representative, in some measure, of the Lower House of Congress, had been asked to use his good offices in securing indirect but substantial aid to the city through an appropriation large enough to set the United States Custom House, Courts, Postoffice, etc., respectably on their feet. A special bill will be introduced early in the coming season, and under the influence of a general sympathy and admiration for Chicago, will undoubtedly pass, with a show of liberality unusual in the Committee of Appropriations. Assurances have been given that the new buildings shall be excelled by none owned by the Government in any part of the country in the points of convenience, style, finish and durability, and that by complete isolation from surrounding structures and other approved devices they shall be perfect citadels against the assaults of fire. Mr. Mullett expects to spend four or five millions before the new buildings are wholly finished; but no more will be asked for at the next season than will pay for land enough to make up a whole square, probably a million dollars, and get the work well started.

THE NAMING OF HERSCHEL'S PLANET.—Lalande proposed the name of the discoverer, and the new planet was indeed long known on the Continent by the name of "Herschel." The symbol of the planet (H.) the initial letter of Herschel's name, with a small globe attached to the cross-stroke, still reminds us of the honor which Continental astronomers generously proposed to render to their fellow-worker in England. Michtenberg proposed the name of Astræa, the Goddess of Justice—for this "exquisite reason," that since justice had failed to establish her reign upon earth, she might be supposed to have removed herself as far as possible from our unworthy planet. Poinsinet suggested that Cybele would be a suitable name; for since Saturn and Jupiter, to whom the gods owed their origin, had long held their seat in the heavens, it was time to find a place for Cybele, "the great mother of the gods." Had the supposed Greek representative of Cybele—Rhea—been selected for the honor, the name of the planet would have approached somewhat nearly in sound, and perhaps in signification, to the old name Rahu. But neither Astræa nor Cybele were regarded as of sufficient dignity and importance among the ancient deities to supply a name for the new planet. Prosperin proposed Neptune as a suitable name, because Saturn would thus have the eldest of his sons one side of him, and his second son on the other. Bode at length suggested the name of Uranus, the most ancient of the deities; and as Saturn, the father of Jupiter, travels on a wider orbit than Jupiter, so it was judged [illegible] Jupiter's grandfather. In accepting the name of Uranus for the new planet, astronomers seemed to assert a belief that no planet would be found to travel on a yet wider path; and accordingly when a more distant planet was discovered, the suggestion of Prosperin had to be reconsidered; but it was too late to change the accepted nomenclature, and accordingly the younger brother of Jupiter has had assigned to him a planet circling outside the paths of that assigned to their father and grandfather. It may be noted, also, that a more appropriate name for the new planet would have been Cœlus, since all the other planets have received the Latin names of the deities.—Saint Paul's Magazine.

A telegraphic dispatch as printed yesterday reports Mr. Greeley as saying in the New York Tribune: "It is not generally conceded that the next President must be a Republican," undoubtedly the dispatch should read, "It is now generally conceded," etc., for this is the fact. It is so conceded on all sides, and even by intelligent Democrats.

I consider it, from my experience, the best remedy for rheumatism known.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 29, 1871.

CITY.

NORTH FRONT STREET.—We met an irate individual, yesterday morning, who had just got himself well covered with mud while assisting a hack driver to get his vehicle out of the Slough of Despond, in North Front street, opposite the Willamet Iron Works. He hailed and wanted to know why we didn't give that piece of street "a shot." We couldn't see any material point to be made by shooting the street, and we so informed him, at the same time querying why he didn't give it "a shot." Whereat, the irate individual became profane and gave it as his decided opinion that that kind of street was a profane shame upon the city. We concurred; and then he wanted to know in a profane manner why the Street Commissioner didn't fix it. Mildly we suggested that the Street Commissioner might not feel magnanimously disposed to fix it at his own expense, and that he had no authority to compel property owners to do it till the usual City Council red tape should be spun. Then the irate man wanted to know why in the name of profanity the Council didn't furnish the necessary red tape. That was a stunner, and we couldn't answer. Really, though, we would like to know. The street, meantime, is as bad as bad can be, and constantly getting worse. A dozen times a day, wagon, truck and dray drop into the chuck-holes, teams slosh around, drivers swear, and by-standers denounce the street as a disgrace to the city—and that is precisely what it is.

THE PECULIAR HEATHEN.—A Heathen Chinee of the peculiar sort was caught yesterday afternoon in a peculiar situation. Mr. Lehman Blum happened to go into his room, opposite the theater, about five o'clock yesterday afternoon, when he discovered a boot under his bed that didn't belong there. Following up the discovery, he found a Chinaman who had got into the room through the transom over the door. He dragged him out, seized him by the pig-tail with one hand and by the throat with the other, and marched him into the custody of a police officer; the Chinaman all the time trying to rise to explain. He was under the impression that somebody had sent him up there, that he had merely got into the wrong room, and that his captor was laboring under an exceedingly disagreeable mistake. Mr. Blum, however, failed to take the circumstance in that light, and Johnny had to go. The question now is, as the heathen didn't get into the room by the door, and had not stolen anything, whether the proper prosecution will be for burglary, for being peculiar, for ways that are dark or for a trick that was vain.

NEW METHOD OF BUTTER PACKING.—We find the following in an exchange, and we commend the trial of the method to our butter makers: "A Michigan dairyman has this method of packing butter: He has oaken tubs with heads at each end. They are fourteen inches in diameter at the top, nine inches at the bottom and sixteen inches high. In packing, a cambric bag is made to fit the tub. The butter is packed in the tub as it stands on the small end—the sack being long enough to extend above the edges of the tub—and it is pressed down firmly until it is within an inch and a half of the top, when a circular cloth is laid over it, the edges of the sack turned down over that, and a layer of fine salt placed on it. The head is now put in its place, the tub turned up, and the butter in the sack of course falling down to the bottom, leaves a space all around it, which is filled with brine, poured through a hole in the head. When full the hole is corked up tight. The butter floats in the brine and is effectually preserved from the air, and will keep for an almost indefinite period."

PASSENGER LIST.—The following is the list of passengers per steamship Ajax, which arrived yesterday morning from San Francisco:

F B Strong and wife, F E Emerald and family, D Headley and wife, E J Wright and family, Mrs B Davidson and child, Dr T Tyler, E Wright, F H Montgomery, Mrs J Donovan, Miss J F Dalyan, Dr Treadwell, U S A, L Blum, T C Bingham, F Burdoise, Miss E L Nichols, Miss A Poolman, Mrs King, Mrs D M Lindsey and 2 children, Miss S Lindsey, Mrs E Lindsey, Mrs French and 2 children, Miss M Galloway, Mrs S Worden, Dr A Hoffman and wife, Miss J H Harlow and sister, C Harlow and wife, M H Harlow, T G Harlow, L Harlow, A C Swift, W E Torrell, J L Hungborn, T R Brown, E Frank, M Almy, M Currier, J Straub, M Wiley, Jas Sloan, A Sloan, J H Blanchard, Geo McDonald, F O Lynch, wife and mother, J M Edgar, W S Johnson, P Trommtz, O Stephens, Mrs Beggs and 4 children.

OVERLAND MONTHLY.—The December number of this magazine is at hand. It is hardly necessary for us to commend it to our readers, as it is generally recognized as an excellent exponent of our Pacific coast, not only as to literature, but also as to its history, resources, etc. Every number contains, besides the articles more particularly belonging to the Pacific coast, many articles on general subjects and interesting to the general reader. With the January number it will enter upon its eighth volume, and the present, therefore, is a good time to subscribe. Postmasters are authorized agents.

THE STORM UP THE VALLEY.—A North Yamhill correspondent, writing Monday 27th, says: "It snowed here yesterday. Commenced about 8 o'clock A. M. and continued with a north wind until about 3 P. M., at which time the ground was covered to a depth of 3½ inches, except where it had drifted. Icicles were formed during the day. Last night it snowed again, and this morning the ground has a white covering of five or six inches. The wind is in the south, so that we may expect a thaw before many hours. Snow this early in the fall astonishes old Oregonian farmers here."

FINED FOR ABUSING A JUROR.—H. H. Tuttle was a juror in the case of the State vs Ned Percy. After the discharge of the jury, he was in a restaurant, when a man named Allen attacked him with abusive language, applying several opprobrious epithets. For such abuse, Tuttle had Allen arrested and taken before the Police Judge. Allen pleaded guilty, and Judge Denny fined him fifty dollars, besides giving him a lecture. Mr. Allen has probably learned by experience that it does not pay to get excited and charge upon a juror whose verdict does not suit him.

A REJOINDER FROM STRANGER.—We have received from "Stranger" a rejoinder to Mr. Joyalin's reply to his original communication concerning entertainments for winter evenings. It is no more than an immaterial answer to some of Mr. Joyalin's remarks, containing nothing new in regard to the first subject discussed, and we, therefore, decline to print it. Any good, practical suggestions, however, new or old, in relation to proper amusements or entertainments for the winter, would find space.

THE ABSCONDING CONTRACTOR.—We find the following paragraph in the San Francisco Bulletin: "The statement, published in the Oregon papers, that A. H. Jordan, one of the contractors of the Canal and Lock Company of Portland, has absconded, we are authorized to say is false. Mr. Jordan is now in this city, where he has long been well known. Mr. Jordan's action is endorsed by others interested with him in this business as quite correct."

THANKSGIVING DANCES.—The friends of mine host of the American Exchange are invited to give thanks and dance with him Thursday evening. It is expected there will be a goodly number of dancers present.

The fifth annual ball of the Emmet Guard will take place the same evening at their Armory on A street.

ARRIVAL OF A SENSATION.—Miss Carrie A. Moore, of Boston, who has been doing the sensational in California upon velocipedes and roller-skates, arrived at this city by the Ajax yesterday morning. It is understood that she will shortly appear in character, at the Pavilion.

CHARGED WITH WIFE-WHIPPING.—A colored man who rejoiceth in scavenger work, is charged with "correcting" his wife, and the matter will be inquired into this morning at the Police Court. Our scavenger pleads not guilty, to the soft impeachment.

INJURED BY MACHINERY.—A man named S. D. Swanson was severely injured on Monday by falling from a ladder upon a revolving shaft at the North Portland Saw Mill. He is a Swede and unmarried. He was attended by Dr. Chapman.

OVERLAND PANORAMA.—Mr. Bachelder exhibited at Oro Fino Theater last evening the panorama of a Tour Across the Continent. It will be exhibited again to-night for the last time prior to departure for Victoria.

POSTPONED.—The trial of the strap gamists has been postponed till next week.

IN MEMORIAM.

At a regular meeting of Hassalo Lodge No. 15, I. O. O. F., Portland, the following resolutions on the death of Bro. C. O. Clark, P. G., were adopted:

WHEREAS, The hand of Death has again been laid heavily on our Lodge in the removal of our brother C. O. Clark, P. G., we are called on to express in this another and weaker form our sorrow and our high esteem of Bro. C. O. Clark, P. G., lately deceased; therefore be it

Resolved, That as a Lodge we will ever remember with mingled feelings of sadness and respect the excellent traits of character which our deceased brother always made prominent in his intercourse with us as brothers and all others with whom his varied relations in life brought him in contact.

Resolved, That with his bereaved family we deeply and truly mourn, not as those who have no hope, but as those who, entertaining an unfaltering belief in the immortality of the soul, live in hope of a glad reunion beyond the grave.

Resolved, That as tokens of respect to the memory of our deceased brother, these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Lodge, the charter of the Lodge be draped in mourning and the members wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy be sent under the seal of the Lodge to the family of our departed brother, and that the daily papers of the city be furnished with a copy each for publication.

C. W. PARRISH, R. S.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The river has now got two feet up, and is trying to get up another.

It is stated that fifteen families of immigrants arrived by the steamer Ajax.

It is announced that Joaquin Miller has agreed to lecture for the Wallamet Society.

Ned Percy, the convicted strap gamist, will be called up for sentence to-morrow morning.

The accident to the locomotive at Beaverton, on Monday, only amounted to a few hours detention.

"Co-operation to secure homes" is suggested by a cotemporary. Yes, we will take some of that.

John Foster, the seductionist, has been installed in his new residence at Salem. He will keep out of mischief for a while.

Numerous hunting parties have gone out from the city within the last few days for ducks, deer, etc. Perhaps they'll come back bare.

Holders of tickets in the Omaha lottery are more nervous than ever, because they have heard that the drawing has been "drawed."

The steamship Ajax, from San Francisco, arrived shortly after midnight yesterday morning, having made an unusually quick trip.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

TUESDAY, Nov. 28, 1871.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, J.

In the matter of Andrew Wiley, convicted at the last March term and sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year, an unconditional pardon by the President was ordered placed on file.

United States vs. John Savage; indictment for selling liquor to Indians. Jury trial; verdict of guilty, and next Thursday set for sentence.

The Court adjourned till Tuesday, Dec. 5th.

CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON, J.

J. W. Clark, George W. Hillman and Mark A. King, jurors, were excused until Monday next.

State of Oregon vs Charles Hudson; larceny. Defendant arraigned.

State of Oregon vs Susan Ellsworth; larceny. Tried and acquitted.

The jurors on the trial of Kiethly and Percy were excused until Monday next.

State of Oregon vs Nellie Monroe; larceny. Tried; verdict of jury "not guilty."

FROM THE MOUTH OF THE RIVER.—The steamer from Astoria brings intelligence that the two vessels seen outside the bar the other day were blown off the coast. The weather yesterday morning, however, was remarkably fine.

STEAMER ARRANGEMENTS.—The steamer Emma Hayward was, Monday, taken off the route to the Cascades, and laid up at the Bone Yard, the Dixie Thompson taking her place. The Okanagon is doing the Astoria route.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

DANCING ACADEMY.—Mr. Cardinell announces this morning, that he will re-open, next Monday evening, his Dancing Academy for the winter term. Rooms at the old place on Front street, above Yamhill.

ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, nasal catarrh and all affections of the throat and lungs are treated successfully by the new and scientific mode as practiced by Dr. Aborn, corner Third and Morrison streets.

Everybody says S. L. Stone is selling the best bit and two bit cigars in the city.

I say, mister, where is the Postoffice? Why, it is next door to S. L. Stone's cigar and tobacco store.

S. L. Stone is giving more toys and fancy goods for six bits than any house in town does for one dollar.

WORK of every description in the house finishing line will be done at short notice to the best of satisfaction.

PAUL RICHTER.

Kris Kringle's headquarters is at S. L. Stone's, next door to the Postoffice.

As S. L. Stone is closing out at cost his fancy goods, toys and willow ware, this is the last chance to buy cheap.

BOSS TWEED and others of the Tammany Ring have been stirred up very lively of late, but that is nothing compared with the excitement caused by Kohn & Fishel, who have stocked their large clothing establishment, No. 91 Front street, with goods for winter wear to suit all classes, not only in style but in price. Seeing is believing, so go and examine their stock.

That Famous Store(y) Reset.

BY A CROSS OF E.

Go where you will throughout the town;
Or even stroll the country round,

The self-same notice meets your eye
Of "Go to Kohn's, Clothes to buy."

Bethinking what a treat 'twould be
Also this famous store to see,
Right to the place at once did I,
Myself betake his Clothes to try;
And in less time than I can say, sir,
New Clothes I'd donned—the low price paid, sir.

TESTIMONIAL.

We the undersigned having been the pupils of the services of Mrs. M. O. White in teaching the science of Music on the Pianoforte, take pleasure in giving a hearty testimonial that we have employed her in our families as a teacher of her "New Method of Instruction," and that it has proven superior to any method we have ever known. And that although the first cost may be a trifle greater than some others, we believe it to be in the aggregate much cheaper, beside being a great economy in point of time. We, therefore, take pleasure in recommending her to the patronage of all who may be desirous of obtaining a musical education, as a very superior instructor.

To those who desire to know more about it before incurring any expense, we give a cordial invitation to call at our homes and interview her pupils.

The True Grounds of Confidence.

Whence comes that firm reliance, that absolute undoubting faith in the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a remedy for indigestion, billious disorders, intermittent and remittent fevers, which notoriously prevails in all parts of the United States? This confidence has been growing for twenty years, and is still extending. It is not the result of credulity; it has not been engendered by any human device, but is the spontaneous and natural consequence of experience. What people see daily going on under their own eyes they cannot question. When families in unhealthy districts, that resort to this wholesome vegetable tonic as a preventive escape periodical fevers, and their immediate neighbors, who neglect that precaution, are prostrated by disease, how is it possible that the phenomenon should be without its lesson? In like manner when it is seen that obstinate cases of dyspepsia, of liver complaint, of constipation, of nervous weakness, and of general debility, yield to the operation of the famous remedy, how can even incredulity itself withhold its indorsement? Eye witnesses of the salutary effects of the bitters are to be found in every civilized settlement on this continent. Thousands upon thousands who owe their restoration to health and and strength, or their preservation from sickness to its extraordinary medical properties, are enthusiastic in its praise. The multitudes who recommend it in a neighborly way to their friends and acquaintances, as well as those who make public their estimate of its virtues, are always ready to state the reason for the faith that is in them. They have all either felt or witnessed its beneficent operation.

NEW YORK

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY!

PURELY MUTUAL!

ASSETS .... $17,000,000!

ISSUED 9,925 POLICIES IN 1870,

Insuring Over $27,000,000!

WM. H. BEERS,
Vice President and Actuary.

MORRIS FRANKLIN,
President.

AMONG THE ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THE NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY are:—

1st. PURE MUTUALITY, so that the entire surplus earnings over the actual cost of insurance is returned to the policy holders who are the only members.

2d. AGE, having been organized in 1845. It has the benefit of the experience of a quarter of a century, and members are thus guaranteed from all doubtful experiment in the method of conducting its business.

3d. STABILITY AND PERPETUITY shown by the accumulation of a capital of Seventeen Millions of Dollars, after paying all losses promptly, and returning large dividends to its members. It has now an income of over Seven Millions of Dollars, and the interest on its investments, with premium on gold, &c., has been sufficient during the past two years to pay accruing losses.

4th. NON-FORFEITURE OF POLICIES. It originated the system of non-forfeiture of policies, and to it the public are indebted for a feature so favorable to the insured.

5th. SUICIDE does not cause a forfeiture of the policy, that being considered an evidence of insanity, and insanity the result of disease.

6th. DIVIDENDS. Its dividends are declared annually, and are available immediately as cash in payment of premiums. Many companies declare their premiums annually, but do not pay them till several years thereafter; others defer their declarations for two, three or four years from the time the policy commences. In this Company a party always has a dividend which can be used in the payment of the second and all subsequent annual premiums.

7th. ITS DIVIDEND SYSTEM is the "Contribution Plan," by which each member is charged with the exact cost of his insurance, and receives back his surplus payments. These dividends can remain with the Company, participating in its earnings, and be used at any subsequent period in the payment of premiums.

8th. LIBERALITY IN SETTLEMENT OF LOSSES. Experience has shown that cases arise where policies, although EQUITABLY claims, are not LEGALLY so. The records of this Company bear many acknowledgements from widows and relatives of deceased members of its liberality and fairness in settlement of all such losses. There being no stockholders in the Company to share its profits, interests adverse to policy-holders cannot possibly arise, the Trustees simply occupying the position of arbitrators between the members, with no inducement to take from one and give to another.

OF THE

Pianoforte, Guitar and Organ.

RECENTLY FROM THE EAST AND MORE RECENTLY from San Francisco, is stopping at (Mrs.) W. HILLMAN'S, No. 203 Second Street, next to the New Congregational Church, where she would be glad to see all interested in music, and wish to learn to play in the shortest possible time. By this method a pupil learns at sight what the fingers are required to do, and thus a far more thorough knowledge of harmony and thorough bass, learning to play the Piano and Organ in one-half the time of the old method. Please give her an immediate call and inquire what the method is.

At home from 3 to 4 P. M.

Mrs. WHITE is also Agent and has for sale, Wm. McCammon's celebrated full iron rim Pianos, of Albany, N. Y. Orders may be left at Gray's Music Store, First St.

Gold in New York—111[illegible]

Portland Legal Tender quotations, 89½c buying, and 90½ selling.

The following is the latest telegraphic quotations from New York to the San Francisco papers:

NEW YORK, November 21.

Five-twenties of 1862, 111¾; of 1867, 114¾; Sterling Exchange, 109½@110½; Hides, steady; dry, 22@22½c; salted, 11@11½c; Whale Oil, market active, tending upward; crude, 60c; winter bleached, 85c; Sperm Oil, $1 55@1 60; winter bleached, $1 65@1 70; Wool, steady; Spring fine, 34@40c; burry do, 28@33c; pulled do, 38@60c; Fall, 28@30c; burry do, 20@25c; Cotton, 18.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The bullion in the Bank of England has increased £303,000. Consols, 93½@93¾.

PARIS, Nov. 21.—Rentes, 58 francs, 80 centimes.

To-day's public dispatches contain the following:

Gold in New York to-day, 110⅞; Bonds, 111½@114¾; Sterling, 9@9½; Greenbacks, unchanged.

No vessels reported either inside or outside the bar by the Okanagon's officers.

The steamer Ajax from San Francisco with passengers and freight, arrived this morning. She is announced to leave on Thursday.

The brig Orient will finish unloading to-morrow evening, and commence loading cargo Wheat on Thursday.

A Washington dispatch of Nov. 22d, says: "The Solicitor of the Treasury decides that any passenger steamer carrying petroleum contrary to law is subject to seizure, but the oil itself is not; also, that when carried according to law, all petroleum must be marked at what degree of Fahrenheit it will ignite; and the transportation of coal oil on passenger steamers is entirely forbidden on the Pacific coast.

The Bulletin says that the OREGONIAN reports that the Pacific Insurance Company has "failed," and thinks this exceedingly unjust, inasmuch as that Company has only stopped issuing policies for the present. Now, the OREGONIAN did not say the Company had "failed." It said the Company had "suspended," which is perfectly true. That is, the Company has suspended business, or stopped issuing policies. Between failure and suspension there is a difference which is everywhere recognized. A Company or firm may suspend on account of embarrassments, and may afterwards resume, or may not. But the failure of a Company or firm is an end of its business. Had our contemporary quoted us accurately there would have been no need to take the trouble to protest against what we said. He remarks, however, that the Company has not suspended and has no idea of suspending; it has only stopped issuing policies. Here is a marvellous distinction without a difference. It is equal to dividing a [illegible] betwixt the south and southwest side. If the Company has stopped issuing policies, pray what is that but a suspension of business? We trust, however, that the suspension may be only temporary, as the Pacific Insurance Company has recommended itself by its integrity and soundness to the people of the whole Pacific Coast and even the Eastern States. The Chicago calamity was one which might well shake [illegible] to its foundations.

J. G. Parker, Jr., the [illegible] Agent here of the Pacific Insurance Company has received a dispatch from the San Francisco office as follows:

We have stopped issuing new Policies until our Chicago losses are settled which is being done as fast as [illegible] Cancel Policies where required.

It is a question of some moment among our millers and Flour dealers where we will obtain our market for the surplus Flour at remunerative rates. The China trade shows an increase over last year from July 1, 1871, to Nov. 23, 1871, from San Francisco of 37,252 bbls; Japan a falling off of 332 bbls; Great Britain, a gain of [illegible] bbls; Mexico, of 530 bbls; Panama, 365 bbls; British Columbia, 645 bbls; Tahiti, 643 bbls. Java, 2,400 bbls; New Zealand, 500 bbls; Manila, 6,050 bbls and Fiji Islands 25 bbls, [illegible] none for the corresponding period last year. Central America shows a falling off of 1,739 bbls; the Sandwich Islands of 3,630 bbls; and New York of 350 bbls. Our millers having purchased, are able to purchase, Wheat in this market at from 20c to 35c per cental less than do California millers in the San Francisco market, and notwithstanding the figures above of San Francisco exports most conclusively show that our millers are not alive to their own interest. With proper inducements there is no [illegible] for Chinese or any others making purchases in San Francisco of Flour for the China market. American vessels can be chartered in San Francisco to come here, as in the case of the ship Windward, to load Flour for China by loading freight, which is always offering, or has been this season, for this port on very nearly as easy terms as from San Francisco to China; the difference in the price of Flour here and in San Francisco ought to be in favor of shippers more than enough to pay the difference in charter. Our millers send their Flour to San Francisco, pay freight on it from here there, drayage and warehouse charges and commission for selling and then only receive as much as asked and sold for in this market, if the [illegible] quotations can be relied upon. Such should not be the case. We should open up as far as possible direct trade with all countries by offering such inducements as to draw them here and make up the profits in the quantity sold. It will have to come to this sooner or later, or else the shippers will in the end control the Wheat market, for millers cannot now expect to compete as successfully with California millers as formerly owing to there being a greater competition for our Wheat and the expenses attending the marketing of Flour in San Francisco.

One of our large interior mills, the Salem Mills, last year sold in the San Francisco market, through the house [illegible] Flour deliverable here for the Brazilian market, and has also, so we are informed, shown a commendable spirit in making concessions to parties filling China orders. This is the right course for all our millers to adopt—not only making concessions to those filling China and other foreign orders, so as to induce direct trade, but also to keep prices down in lots of from 100 to 500 bbls, so that our market will be attractive to the trade on Puget Sound and at Victoria. It should be borne in mind that we cannot sell to the trade on Puget Sound and British Columbia at the same rates as are [illegible] San Francisco owing to freights being higher from here to these points than from San Francisco there.

Produce Market.

WHEAT—With renewed shipments and increased receipts shippers will probably resume purchasing. The aggregate cargoes of the steamer Ajax and brig Orient will not fall much, if any short of 1,000 tons for San Francisco. [illegible] coming through at 12s 1½d. Market is weak at $2 20@2 27½ per cental sacked.

European and Oregon Land Co.,

PORTLAND, OREGON, August 1, 1871.

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND the pre-emption privilege of purchasing Railroad Lands in advance of the same being placed in market to all parties desirous of securing them on the following terms:

The applicant, filing in this office a claim in the form prescribed, to wit:

Pre-emption, [illegible] date, No. ——.

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company:

SIR: You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved (description of land) in the county of [illegible], State of Oregon, containing —— acres, and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said lands at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1871, to the terms of which I hereby fully assent:

"Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are opened for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment, as all other lands belonging to the Company, when brought into market; provided, such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice, or otherwise, as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person."

(Postoffice address.) (Name of applicant.)

When the application is received, a certificate, signed by the Agent, obligating the Company to the terms, will be sent to the claimant in the following form:

PRE-EMPTION CERTIFICATE, No. ——.

This is to certify that —— of —— county, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office a pre-emption claim to (description of premises), and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company's valuation, (which is to be made without reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market, in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company, adopted May 26, A. D. 1871.

When the price of the above described land is fixed, notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued, and if the land is not purchased by the said party as the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

(Signed) Land Agent of the E. & O. Land Co.
